The Property

Nestled in an enviable elevated position and surrounded by rolling countryside, this delightful period cottage offers a rare opportunity to acquire a home full of charm, character and potential. Dating back to the early 1800's and Grade II listed, the property retains a wealth of original features including exposed beams, stonework and traditional fireplaces, all combining to create a warm and inviting home.

As you step inside, you are immediately welcomed by the character and charm on offer. The main living room is a cosy yet spacious room, centred around a superb stone inglenook fireplace with a wood burning stove – just the spot to relax and unwind during the colder months. With exposed ceiling timbers and a lovely outlook, this room really sets the tone for the rest of the property.

From here you move through to the kitchen/dining room, a wonderful sociable space which blends traditional style with practicality. With flagstone flooring, fitted units and plenty of room for a dining table, it is easy to imagine family meals and entertaining guests here, all whilst enjoying views out towards the surrounding countryside. The ground floor also benefits from a useful utility room, ideal for day-to-day living, along with a study and a ground floor bedroom which offers excellent flexibility for guests or multi-generational living. Conveniently positioned next to this bedroom is a ground floor shower room, adding further practicality to the layout.

The accommodation continues to impress as you explore further, with a second reception room providing additional space to relax, perfect as a snug or sitting room depending on your needs.

To the first floor, the property offers four well-proportioned bedrooms, all enjoying a pleasant outlook over the gardens and surrounding countryside. The principal bedroom is a particularly lovely space, full of character with exposed timbers and a charming feel. The remaining bedrooms are all doubles, offering flexibility for family living or visiting guests. A family bathroom serves the first floor accommodation.

Outside

The setting here is simply fantastic! The property sits within grounds extending to approximately 1.3 acres, offering a wonderful mix of garden and paddock land, ideal for those looking for a more rural lifestyle.

The gardens wrap around the cottage, providing areas to sit, relax and take in the stunning views that stretch for miles across the surrounding countryside. Whether it's a morning coffee or an evening glass of something chilled, this is a setting you will never tire of.

For those looking for additional space, the timber clad barn is a real asset. Previously used as a bunk house, it offers fantastic potential for a variety of uses (subject to any necessary permissions), whether that be further accommodation, a workshop or hobby space.

Beyond the gardens lies the paddock, perfect for those with animals or simply looking to enjoy a bit more land, all set against a backdrop of rolling hills and open farmland.

The Location

The property is located a short 4 mile drive from the market town of Builth Wells. Builth Wells (Llanfair ym Maullt) is located at the heart of Powys, Mid-Wales in what is arguably some of the most beautiful countryside in the United Kingdom. Builth Wells lies within the Historic Boundaries of Brecknockshire, situated on the banks of the River Wye and the River Irfon – The Upper section of the Wye Valley. Builth Wells is famously known for playing host to the Royal Welsh Show, which is the biggest agricultural show in Europe and attracts over 240,000 visitors to the town each year. With a population of around two and a half thousand – the positive impact this has on many local businesses located within Builth Wells is immeasurable. Builth Wells is ideally located in regard to beautiful surroundings with the Elan Valley and Brecon Beacons both just a short drive away.
