Two identical office/retail units are available on the highly sought-after Great Castle Street, superbly positioned just moments from Oxford Circus Station and Regent Street.

Each unit provides a private, ready-to-use space suitable for approximately 8–16 people, offering a flexible layout that can accommodate a variety of office or retail uses.

The units benefit from a small private tea station with a fridge, as well as a guest cloakroom, providing a practical and self-contained working environment.

Situated in the heart of the West End, the property enjoys an exceptional central London location surrounded by an excellent selection of shops, cafés, restaurants and transport connections.
