

Horseshoes

Horseshoes, Spreyton, Crediton, Devon, EX17 5DY

SITUATION

The property is located on the edge of the popular village of Spreyton, yet within a short walk of the village centre. The village has a church, village hall, primary school and an award winning public house, the Tom Copley Inn. The village also has a community shop and visiting post office. The town of Crediton is easily accessible, as is Okehampton, with its excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets (including a Waitrose) modern hospital and expanding sixth form college. The cathedral City of Exeter is some 20 miles distant, offering an extensive range of shopping and business facilities together with main line rail international air and M5 motorway connections. The boundary of the Dartmoor National Park is some 5 miles away. Dartmoor is well known for its hundreds of square miles of superb unspoilt scenery with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. The A30 dual carriageway is easily accessible providing a direct link west into Cornwall and East to Exeter, the M5 and beyond.

DESCRIPTION

Horseshoes is one of three individual homes, set on the edge of this desirable village and built by a well-regarded local developer. The property offers efficient, modern living and is fully double glazed with light oak-effect uPVC units, and both the ground and first floors enjoy underfloor heating served by an economical air-source heat pump. Further eco-friendly credentials include a rainwater harvesting system. The construction is of traditional cavity design, complemented by appealing part-exposed stonework to the front elevation beneath a slate roof. Internally, the accommodation is well arranged for comfortable living. Oak internal doors and quality tiling to the entrance hall and kitchen/dining room create a welcoming feel, with the remainder of the house carpeted throughout. The ground floor provides a generous sitting room and a well-appointed kitchen/dining room fitted with a range of integrated appliances. On the first floor are three bedrooms, the principal of which benefits from an en-suite shower room. Outside, the property offers driveway parking for two vehicles to the side, together with a private, easily maintained enclosed rear garden.
