

High Street, TW11

£2,050 Per calendar month

Set in the heart of Teddington in this unique period building, is this two double bedroom apartment and it is a must view!

At the side of this building is the access to this apartment. Enter in from the secure gate and walk through the communal garden. This period conversion flat offers two spacious double bedrooms, a bright living room and kitchen. The kitchen consists of a tasteful Bamboo wood worktop, dishwasher and integrated appliances and finished to a good stand throughout. There is direct access to a sunny two level patio and courtyard space which is shared.

Furthermore the property has ample storage located in the loft and hallway and has a secure entry system. The property is quiet and private although close to the high street and a few minutes walk from the station.

The High Street is the central hub for all that Teddington offers. A superb spot if you are looking for school catchments and transport, as well as being surrounded by the best shops and restaurants along with the River Thames and Bushy Park.
