This beautiful Victorian home is located on Bulmershe Road in the centre of Reading's desirable University area.

The three-storey home has five bedrooms and is just a short distance from the University campus and the Royal Berkshire Hospital, offering a superb location for families and professionals.

The property blends period charm with contemporary style that carefully enhances the original features, with elegant column radiators, mahogany flooring and double-glazed sash-style windows adding to the overall finish.

Downstairs, there are two separate reception rooms which provide ample space for relaxing or entertaining. The kitchen/breakfast room is ideal for family living, and a useful utility room adds further valuable storage space.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts three generous bedrooms and two bathrooms, the master bedroom having a stylish modern en-suite bathroom complete with a separate shower cubicle. The top floor offers two further bedrooms and shower room, perfect for growing families or working from home.

Outside, a fully-walled westerly-facing garden creates a wonderful setting for al fresco dining and outdoor enjoyment.

The location has a wide range of well-regarded state and independent schools close by, as well as public open spaces such as Palmer Park, which has a range of leisure facilities. Reading's mainline train station, local bus routes, and excellent road links via the A329(M) ensure easy access to both local amenities and further afield.
