Occupying an enviable coastal position within an attractive Victorian mansion, Picton House is a charming first-floor apartment dating from circa 1860, enjoying exceptional panoramic views across the Bristol Channel towards the Welsh hills.

The property is approached via an attractive external entrance leading to a communal hall. Stepping inside, the apartment begins with a central hallway accessing all rooms. Light and well-proportioned throughout, the apartment offers two comfortable double bedrooms, together with a wonderful drawing room which forms the heart of the home. Featuring an attractive fireplace and positioned to make the most of the outstanding coastal outlook, this is a particularly impressive reception space. The accommodation is completed by a separate kitchen and bathroom, with access to the loft providing useful additional storage. A gas boiler was installed in April 2025.

Externally, residents benefit from the use of the communal gardens, which are arranged over various tiers and provide a number of pleasant seating and relaxation areas from which to enjoy the superb views. Parking is available to the rear of the building on a first come, first served basis accessed via a driveway to the right hand side of the building.

With its characterful Victorian setting, bright accommodation, superb views and sought-after coastal position, Picton House offers a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious apartment with genuine charm and an exceptional outlook.

Clevedon is a traditional Victorian town, famous for its spectacular sunsets. Hill Road is renowned for its independent boutique shops, cafés and restaurants, offering a wonderful selection of places to browse, eat and relax. The town is also home to the only Grade I Listed pier in the UK, while the beautiful seafront provides the perfect setting for scenic walks and enjoying the ever-changing coastal views.
