The property is believed to have been constructed some fifty plus years ago by Chubbs the builders, who were a renowned local building company from this era. The property has been well cared for and maintained but would now benefit from some general updating.

The property follows a traditional arrangement with all principal rooms set off the main entrance hallway where you will also find access to a good size loft space and linen cupboard. The sitting/dining room spans the full depth of the bungalow and enjoys a lovely triple aspect. This spacious arrangement provides an ideal area for entertaining with the adjoining conservatory overlooking the rear garden. There is a well-appointed kitchen fitted with a traditional range of units, an oil two oven AGA and separate electric oven with hob. The property features three bedrooms, with an en-suite shower room to the master and family bathroom.

OUTSIDE

South Leas sits will within its plot with established well maintained gardens measuring in the region of a quarter of an acre. To the front of the bungalow is a gated brick paved driveway with lawn garden and established shrubs. There are two generous garages including one with a workshop area. To the rear elevation is a further lawned garden including a wide variety of plants, mature trees and shrubs. Patio seating area with summerhouse and a productive vegetable garden including fruit trees and greenhouse.

SITUATION

South Leas sits centrally within the East Devon village of Chardstock and in walking distance of local amenities. These include a community run post office/stores, parish church and village hall. Chardstock also offers many social clubs, bowls green and cricket club. The adjoining village of Tytherleigh has a popular farm shop and The Tytherleigh Arms, renowned for its quality cuisine. The village is situated midway between Axminster and Chard (4 miles) both of which offer a good range of amenities, independent shops, chain stores and supermarkets.
