Property Introduction

Located within a quiet cul-de-sac position is this beautifully presented semi-detached bungalow enjoying an outlook towards to North coast.

Offered for sale for the first time in over thirty years, the owners have carried out a number of significant upgrades to include a re-fitted kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and a remodelled contemporary style shower room. A brick driveway offers ample parking and accommodation comprises of hallway, feature lounge with stone fireplace housing a gas fire, two bedrooms, shower room, an impressive re-fitted kitchen/diner and utility room which could be utilised as an occasional bedroom. There is a conservatory overlooking the delightful rear garden which offers a sheltered paved patio with pathways to the side and round to the front lawned garden. From the conservatory steps lead up to a timber workshop/storage shed with power connected and an adjoining potting shed.

A standout feature of the property is the delightful studio/garden room with canopy which makes the most of those long sunny days and is an ideal place for entertaining or for those who work from home with a step out onto artificial grass. There is an additional lawned garden via a small arched gateway with feature Cornish stone wall and borders with a variety of mature plants plus a further sitting corner space with storage unit. This property is a wonderful opportunity for a purchaser to walk into a lovely home and enjoy the outside space which has been subject to a lot of care and dedication.

Location

Redruth is a historic mining town full of industrial heritage and reminders of its past can be seen today with former engine houses and workings prominent locally and further afield. The town centre offers a number of retail outlets as well as a mainline railway station to London Paddington. The main A30 is also nearby making travelling to other destinations in the country and beyond that much easier. Due to the locality of the property, both north and south coasts are within reasonable travelling distance the north renowned for its surfing beaches and rugged clifftop walks while the south is more sheltered and perfect for other water sports such as kayaking, paddleboarding and sailing.

The city of Truro lays approximately twelve miles distant being the main centre in the county for shopping with its cobbled streets, Georgian architecture. It is a draw for just not locals but also visitors to explore and appreciate our small city.
