"We will leave our home at Church Lane with heavy hearts as it has been an absolute dream in terms of location for us! It's hard to beat when you have everything on your doorstep: the street art and cafés of North St, leafy park walk, the harbour and city just a short stroll away. The house has proven to be adaptable to whatever we've asked of it - from hosting games and pizza nights with friends (thanks to the pizza oven in the garden room) to being a wonderful space for our baby to take her first steps."
