Outside

The cottage is accessed by entrance doors to the front from the High Street and from the side on Church Lane and from the rear garden. Further up Church Lane is a driveway entrance to your garden, which features a wildflower garden and part lawn. Offering space for parking, access to a wide Garage and timber-built store shed. A mature well planted garden includes a feature tiered waterfall and wildlife pond. (External IP66 power points). A gate and pathway with natural rose arch leads down to a south facing suntrap courtyard at the rear of the cottage with a variety of mature flowers and plants on the way. Near the Cottage is a useful three section brick/tiled construction outbuilding (formerly outside toilets).

Agents Note

A neighbouring property has a right of way to access the driveway entrance from Church Lane to get to their own garage. From there they have their own access to their Cottage and do not come down through the garden or across the rear of the Cottage.
