£250,000 - £265,000 Guide Price.

Steeped in history, this delightful property features an inviting entrance lobby that leads into a characterful living and dining room. Traditional exposed beams, a stone flagged floor and a feature fireplace with a stove create a warm and cosy atmosphere. The fitted kitchen continues the cottage's character with its exposed beams and stonework, offering a practical yet charming space.

Upstairs, the first floor boasts a generous double bedroom with an impressive exposed crook beam, adding to the cottage's period charm. A bathroom and a second bedroom complete the accommodation.

To the rear of the property, a manageable garden offers a private outdoor retreat, ideal for relaxing or entertaining, with the added benefit of a useful store and outhouse for extra storage.

Tideswell is a highly sought-after village in the heart of the Peak District National Park, known for its vibrant community and excellent amenities, including local shops, café, traditional pubs and a well-regarded primary school. Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the wealth of walking and cycling routes on the doorstep, with stunning countryside, limestone dales, and scenic trails to explore. The nearby Monsal Trail, as well as famous beauty spots such as Millers Dale and Cressbrook Dale, make this an ideal location for those who love outdoor pursuits. Wycliffe Cottage offers the perfect blend of historic charm and modern convenience in one of Derbyshire's sought after villages.
