Location

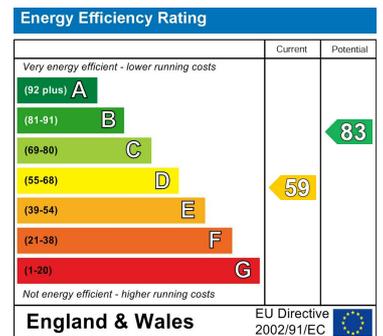

Thatto Heath is a suburban neighbourhood in St Helens, Merseyside, England — part of the North West of England, roughly 4–6 miles east of St Helens town centre and about 10–12 miles from Liverpool city centre. It historically sat within Lancashire and today functions as both a residential community and a small local district within the metropolitan borough. It has its own railway station on the Liverpool–Wigan City Line serving regular trains, making commuting to Liverpool or Wigan relatively easy.
