Welcome to DEVELOPMENT AT 37-39 MAIN STREET OIEO £300,000

Sedbergh, The Yorkshire Dales, LA10 5BL

Situated within the heart of the ever popular and scenic Dales market town of Sedbergh, a unique opportunity to convert a Grade II Listed former butcher's shop and abattoir. A 'Designated Historic Asset', the buildings have significantly changed since their original use as a textile manufactory in the mid to late Victorian period.

The site is located on the south side of Main Street in the town centre. It can be accessed via Weavers Yard at the head of an alley running north off Back Lane.

Detailed planning consent has been granted to convert into five residential dwellings, two with one bedroom and three with two bedrooms.

The sixth unit is to be retained as a retail unit.

The approved plans and elevation designs are shown within the brochure, but for complete information please visit the planning department pages on Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority's website (<https://www.yorkshiredales.org.uk/planning/view-planning-applications>) using the reference S/03/148H for 'full planning permission for conversion of the existing residential unit situated above and to the rear of the retail space into 3 No. (C3) residential units and conversion of former abattoir into 2 No. (C3) residential units'.

Unit ref.	Type	Local occupancy	Bedrooms	Size (sq m)
1	Retail			85
2	Residential	No - existing	1	68
3	Residential	No - existing	2	88
4	Residential	No - existing	2	77
5	Residential	Yes	2	75
6	Residential	Yes	1	81

Some occupancy restrictions apply - a s106 agreement is in place with Yorkshire Dales National Park and further information on the local occupancy can be found on the YDNPA planning portal or from the agent.

To find the property - on foot, head down Main Street and No. 37-39 is on the right hand side opposite The Black Bull. If travelling by car, parking is available at the nearby car park on Joss Lane.

A historic Dales town

The picturesque market town of Sedbergh is a popular choice for those looking to combine small town life with a stunning rural environment. Actually in Cumbria, it is part of the Yorkshire Dales National Park and has a thriving local community. At the foot of the Howgill Fells it sits on the north bank of the River Rawthey which goes on to join the River Lune. Culturally, Sedbergh is very active with dozens of groups and societies as well as being a 'Book Town'.

There is a good range of local facilities, a large Spar and a lovely independent grocers, cafes, restaurants and pubs including the award winning Black Bull Inn, a weekly market, two tennis courts and through locally based clubs Sedbergh residents are able to use the swimming pool and squash courts of Sedbergh School as well as various activities in the indoor sports hall - all within walking distance. This is a wonderful facility for the residents of Sedbergh and really something to shout about for a small Dales town.

Surrounded by thousands of square miles of moors, valleys and hills, the magnificent scenery of the Yorkshire Dales is all around. Also close by and perfect for day trips are The Lake District, the gently rolling Lune Valley and the Forest of Bowland. This is a perfect location if you enjoy everything the great outdoors has to offer.

The market towns of Kendal (11 miles) and Kirkby Lonsdale (11.4 miles) are handy. There is a station at Oxenholme (9.7 miles) on the West Coast line with J37 of the M6 being 4.7 miles distant. Airports are at Leeds Bradford (60.7 miles), Manchester (86.9 miles) and Liverpool (92.6 miles).
