Situated in the popular Porter Close development in Grays, this well-presented one-bedroom first-floor apartment is bright, practical and refreshingly low-maintenance. Whether you're a first-time buyer looking for somewhere to call your own, a professional wanting an easy-to-manage home, downsizing, or searching for a potential buy-to-let, there's plenty here to like.

Step inside and the welcoming entrance hall neatly connects the accommodation, keeping the living and sleeping spaces nicely separated — because even in an apartment, a little bit of personal space goes a long way.

At the heart of the home is the generously proportioned lounge, with plenty of room for a proper sofa setup as well as a dining area. No choosing between somewhere to eat and somewhere to put your feet up here. The lounge opens directly into the kitchen, creating a sociable, open-plan feel that lets the light flow and keeps the cook involved in the conversation.

The modern kitchen continues the contemporary theme with sleek high-gloss cabinets, useful worktop space and plenty of storage. It's smart, practical and open to the lounge — ideal for entertaining, although we can't promise your guests will help with the washing up.

The good-sized double bedroom gives you plenty of breathing room and comes with fitted wardrobes, meaning more storage without sacrificing valuable floor space. Shoes, coats and the things you swear you'll wear again all have somewhere to hide.

There's also a modern shower room, finished in a clean and contemporary style — straightforward, smart and ready for the morning rush.

The apartment is electric throughout, so there's no separate gas supply to think about and just one type of energy bill to keep an eye on. It also benefits from an updated water pump and instant hot-water system — because waiting around for hot water is one tradition we're quite happy to leave in the past.

Outside, residents have the benefit of permit parking, taking some of the daily guesswork out of where you're leaving the car. Better still, the communal areas are professionally cleaned every two weeks, so keeping the shared spaces looking presentable isn't another job waiting for you at the weekend.

Set on the first floor, with a spacious bedroom, fitted storage, contemporary shower room and an open-plan kitchen and living space, this is a smart little apartment that gets the important things right.

Grays is a well-connected Essex town on the northern bank of the River Thames, offering a great balance between everyday convenience, green spaces and access into London. Those who prefer a little fresh air can enjoy Grays Beach Riverside Park, Grays Town Park and the nearby Chafford Gorges Nature Park.
