Close to station

4 bedrooms, small first floor study, family bathroom, separate family shower room, sitting room, dining room, kitchen/ breakfast room, downstairs cloakroom, driveway parking, garage, gas radiator central heating, double glazing.

A two-storey semi-detached house constructed about 60 years ago by Gough Cooper and extended and modernised more recently. It has the considerable benefit of two separately approached bath/shower rooms as well as a small first floor study and downstairs cloakroom.

The property is set in the popular Aldrynton Primary School designated area and the traditional Maiden Erlegh catchment.

It is close by to Maiden Erlegh Lake and not far from the University. There are local shops available at The Parade and bus services provide access into Reading town centre where there is a mainline railway station with fast services to Paddington, services on the Elizabeth line, and also services to Waterloo, which run through the nearby Earley railway station.

The M4 motorway can be joined either at Junction 11, where there is also the A33 south towards Basingstoke, or at Junction 10 where London then lies about 40 miles away and Heathrow Airport about 28 miles away.

AMLR, SANCTION & IDENTITY CHECKS: Estate Agents are required by law to carry out Anti Money Laundering Regulation, sanction and identity checks on prospective purchasers before their offer to buy can be formally accepted; on tenants before they enter into a tenancy agreement; and on clients when accepting instructions to sell or let their property. We do this using a company called Hipla and is charged at £12 per person.
