Kleinwort Close forms part of the Anchor Hanover retirement-built Hurst Place complex on the western edge of Haywards Heath town centre close to the borders of Cuckfield village. The complex is located opposite the glorious Paiges Meadow nature reserve and adjoins Beech Hurst Gardens where there is a family restaurant/pub, wonderful gardens with children's play areas, a miniature steam railway, tennis courts and is the home of Haywards Heath lawn bowls club. Countryside is virtually on the doorstep and Paiges Meadow is across the road providing some wonderful country walks. Cuckfield's Village High Street is a 20-30 minute walk to the west where there are numerous shops, boutiques, restaurants, pubs and church. The town's fashionable Broadway with its numerous restaurants, cafés and bars is within easy walk whilst the town centre is as close where there is an extensive range of shops and stores. A regular bus service runs past the entrance to the development linking with the town, station and neighbouring districts.

By road, access to the major surrounding areas can be swiftly gained via the A272 and A/M23 which lies about 4.5 miles to the west at Bolney or Warninglid.

Distances on foot in miles:

Dolphin medical practice 0.2, The Broadway restaurants and cafés 0.6, Haywards Heath railway station 0.9, Cuckfield's picturesque village High Street 1.4, Brighton seafront 14 & Gatwick Airport 14
