Summary

This is a sizeable three storey, five bedroom detached property tucked away off the High Street in Repton in this quiet cul-de-sac offering a good degree of privacy. The accommodation is set over three floors, is double glazed and gas central heated and sold with the benefit of no upward chain. It features porch, hall, fitted guest cloakroom, dual aspect lounge, dining room, breakfast kitchen and utility.

The first floor features principle bedroom with en- suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom. The second floor features two further potential bedrooms or study. The property benefits from a double width driveway giving access to a double garage which has been converted to a home office/gym. There is a useful storage shed. To the rear of the property is a very private, low maintenance garden featuring extensive terrace with steps leading down to a two tier low maintenance artificial lawn with a patio area. The property backs on to an attractive brook and features mature, well-kept laurel hedge beyond which is an open green space.
