LOCATION

Glebe Road is a well regarded residential position situated to the south of Cambridge city centre, ideally placed for access to a wide range of local amenities and schooling, together with excellent transport links. The property is particularly well positioned for commuters and biomedical professionals alike, with Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Biomedical Campus situated nearby, alongside Cambridge Station providing regular services into London King's Cross and Liverpool Street. The area also offers convenient access onto major road networks including the M11 and A14. Cambridge city centre itself offers an exceptional blend of historic architecture, independent cafés, restaurants and shopping facilities, whilst nearby green spaces and recreational amenities further enhance the appeal of this highly convenient city location.
