The Birches, West Chiltington, RH20 2PH

Offered chain free, this mature three bedroom semi detached house in West Chiltington offers family-friendly living space, within a moments walk of the village shop and the butchers. There are two country pubs within strolling distance, plus The Roundabout Hotel which has a friendly and welcoming bar and restaurant. The village hall is just down the road, alongside the recreation ground and a playpark with outdoor gym equipment. The primary school is about a mile away, with older children catching a bus to The Weald Secondary School or to Steyning Grammar (please ask for further details about school transport arrangements).

The driveway leads off The Common and has space for a couple of cars, alongside a lawned front garden. The cosy living room opens onto a lovely sunroom and the kitchen is fitted in a modern, cottage style. There's a good sized bathroom downstairs too. On the first floor are three bedrooms, all of which will take a double and have wardrobe or cupboard storage. Bedroom one features an ensuite shower room. Outside, the mature, well stocked rear garden is a really relaxing place to be, with space for children to play or for adults to socialise. A decked patio seating area is found just outside the sunroom, with a footpath leading down to an L-shaped timber outbuilding, perfect for a variety of uses. It includes a garden room with woodburner, a large shed and a 22ft long workshop, with plenty of light and additional outside storage area behind.

Further amenities will be found at nearby Storrington and Pulborough. Both are about three miles away, have a range of shops, bars, cafes, takeaways and restaurants, the latter also having a mainline railway station with direct routes to London and Gatwick.
