Description

Pickering is a thriving market town found at the foot of the North York Moors National Park, along the A170 Thirsk to Scarborough Road. As a result there are excellent links to the East Coast and City of York where the Intercity train Service runs from London to Edinburgh. Pickering has a good range of shops, a Monday street market, reputable schools for all ages and amenities that include doctors surgery, dental clinics and library. There are also a wealth of recreational activities close to hand, such as Dalby Forest, The North York Moors Steam Railway and Pickering Castle.

Outgang Road is a street that runs parallel to the A170, to the South Eastern side of the town. It is lined with a mixture of differing property types from old period cottages to new build houses and apartments. Number 19 is at the western end of the street and has a southerly aspect and a surprisingly long garden to its rear. It has undergone a program of refurbishment over recent years that include a new central heating boiler and roof within the last 2 years. There is log burning stove in its front sitting room and space for a breakfast table in the kitchen and adjoining this is a useful bootroom/porch overlooking the rear garden. Upstairs there are two bedrooms (a double and a single) and a house bathroom. Immediately to the rear of the property is a small yard and access to a brick outbuilding. Beyond this is a shared access footpath for the terrace and then each property's own garden; which for no.19 is a garden down mostly to lawn with a metal shed at its end.
