GUIDE PRICE £350,000 - £365,000

Enjoying an idyllic and peaceful setting with picturesque views across the historic village of Tideswell and the stunning Peak District National Park countryside, this Victorian residence combines elegant period charm with high-quality contemporary finishes and timeless appeal.

Situated in a quiet yet central position within one of the Peak District's desirable villages, Tideswell is renowned for its thriving community, excellent local amenities, independent shops, cafés, traditional pubs and the magnificent Cathedral of the Peak. The village also benefits from a highly regarded primary school and falls within the catchment areas for both Lady Manners School and Hope Valley College, making it an attractive location for families as well as those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle.

The beautifully presented accommodation begins with a welcoming Victorian entrance hall featuring a hand-painted staircase and original wooden panelling. The elegant sitting room enjoys delightful village views and centres around an attractive cast iron fireplace housing a Morso multi-fuel stove. At the heart of the home is a stunning bespoke dining kitchen with a quarry tiled floor, integrated Neff dishwasher, Smeg range cooker with induction hob and double ovens.

The property offers three double bedrooms, each finished with attention to detail and featuring stripped wooden floors, built-in storage, column radiators and decorative cast iron fireplaces. Completing the accommodation is a luxurious Villeroy & Boch bathroom with a contemporary shower.

To the rear is an easily managed courtyard and store and a further elevated seating terrace. No upward Chain.

This charming home offers an ideal permanent residence, elegant weekend retreat or high-quality holiday home, with immediate access to spectacular walking, cycling and the wealth of outdoor pursuits the Peak District has to offer.
