DESCRIPTION

This charming Grade II Listed thatched cottage, believed to date back some 500 years built of stone and part cob, offers a rare opportunity to acquire a home of considerable character and size with just over 5.5 acres of beautiful gardens, a lake, a pond and a paddock, with ample parking and a double garage. The property blends period features such as exposed beams, timber windows, inglenook-style fireplaces and traditional clome ovens with modern benefits including oil fired central heating and oak framed conservatory with views over the garden to the countryside beyond.

ACCOMMODATION

The well-proportioned accommodation includes four/five bedrooms (one ensuite), three/four reception rooms and a farmhouse-style kitchen, ideal for family living. A thoughtfully added conservatory, with slate pitched roof, oak-framed glazing and views over the gardens, provides an additional reception space with direct access to a raised terrace.

The main house offers versatile accommodation arranged over two floors, with the potential to create an internal annexe if required, making it an ideal large family or multi-generational home.

A notable feature of the property is the detached, spacious one-bedroom holiday cottage, offering excellent potential for income generation or use as guest accommodation. The majority of fixtures and furnishings here are available by separate negotiation.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a private tarmac lane serving just one other property, culminating in an electric gated entrance which opens into ample off-road parking and a double garage.

The gardens and grounds extend to just over 5.5 acres and are a particular feature of the property. They include a large lake stocked with Golden Orfe, a smaller pond, an area of woodland, an enclosed paddock and informal gardens. The front garden is full of colourful roses, with flowerbeds set behind wrought iron railings, and has stunning thatched porch and its own sundial.

The setting is ideal for those seeking a rural lifestyle and there is further land available by separate negotiation.
