Far Away Place is an exceptionally spacious two-bedroom detached bungalow in Tomintoul, offering around 108 sq m of beautifully presented accommodation with the proportions more commonly associated with a three-bedroom home on a large plot, circa 0.2 acres. A bright entrance vestibule opens into a central hallway from which the accommodation flows particularly well. The sitting room is an impressive reception space extending to around 29 sq m, with ample room for several seating areas, a wood-burning stove forming a natural focal point and a wide opening through to the dining area, creating an excellent sense of space. The adjoining kitchen/dining room is equally impressive and has been finished to a high standard with a generous range of fitted units, extensive work surfaces, a large moveable central island with breakfast seating and a range-style cooker. There is plenty of room for a full dining table, while windows and glazed doors draw in excellent natural light and frame the outstanding open countryside beyond. The doors lead directly to a substantial raised deck, providing a superb outdoor seating and dining area from which the far-reaching views can be fully appreciated. A separate utility room adds useful everyday practicality. Both bedrooms are good doubles, with the principal bedroom benefiting from its own en-suite shower room, while the main bathroom is fitted with a stylish white. Outside, the house is approached over a broad gravelled area providing generous off-street parking and easy access to the detached garage. The rear of the property is a particular highlight, enjoying a wonderful open outlook across surrounding fields towards woodland and the hills beyond. Combining unusually generous room sizes, a high standard of presentation and an enviable open aspect, Far Away Place offers the space and flexibility of a larger bungalow in a particularly attractive edge-of-village setting. Tomintoul

Tomintoul is the Eastern Gateway to the Cairngorms National Park and has the reputation of being the highest village in the Highlands at 1165 ft (350m) centred round a picturesque square and situated near the Lecht Ski Resort Centre on the scenic route between Grantown on Spey and Royal Deeside. It is the largest village in the Glenlivet area supporting B&B's, a post office and general stores, art studios, craft, gift and malt whisky shops.

Tomintoul also has its own distillery, "the Tomintoul", which made the Guinness Book of Records for producing "The Largest Bottle of Scotch Whisky in The World" - at 105.3 litres. There are also three more stills, "The Tamnavulin", "The Braeval" and "The Glenlivet" within a few miles.

The area is surrounded by the mountain ranges of the Cromdales, the Ladder Hills and the Cairngorms, facilitating spectacular views, walks and other outdoor pursuits, including wildlife appreciation, salmon and trout fishing on the nearby River Avon, mountain biking on many trails and nearby bike Glenlivet and hill walking a plenty.

The nearby Lecht Ski Centre 2090 provides winter sports and mountain biking in the summer.

Transport Links

Located in the heart of the Highlands, Tomintoul offers a number of convenient travel options for local, regional, and international travel.

Road: Tomintoul is well-connected via road with the A939, a major scenic route running through Speyside, providing easy access to both Aberdeen to the east and Inverness to the north.

Air: The nearest airports are Inverness Airport (approximately 43 miles away) and Aberdeen International Airport (approximately 56 miles away), offering both domestic and international flights.

Rail: The nearest railway station is Aviemore (around 27 miles away), which is on the main line from Inverness to London, providing connections to major cities across the UK.

Public Transport: There are regular bus services that run through Glenlivet connecting it to neighbouring towns and villages.

For schooling, Tomintoul falls within the Moray Council area, which provides a comprehensive education system. Primary education is available at Tomintoul Primary School, a small but well-regarded school located right in Tomintoul. For secondary education, pupils typically attend Speyside High School in Aberlour, which is approximately 21 miles away and offers a broad curriculum.

For further education, the University of the Highlands and Islands offers a range of courses and has several campuses throughout the Highlands, with the nearest being in Elgin and Inverness. Other universities in Aberdeen and Dundee are available.
