Description

A newly refurbished, compact one-bedroom top floor flat ideally located along Seaside, just a short distance from the seafront and local amenities.

Please note stairs from the first floor level to second floor level are quite steep, so you would need to be physically able to manage these and there is NO space or facility to have a washing machine and therefore you would need to use a launderette or make other arrangements for your washing of clothes.

The property has new decor and benefits from a brand-new kitchen with oven and hob and under counter fridge, new floor coverings throughout. Offered unfurnished, the flat provides an open plan living/kitchen space, ideal for a single professional or couple. GCH. Modern fitted shower room. Convenient location close to shops and transport links. Situated in a popular area of Eastbourne, this property offers easy access to the town centre and seafront. EPC rated: D (please note the property has recently had a new boiler installed since this EPC was carried out) Council Tax Band: A. Available now.
