Earls Manor Court

Set in the Bourne Valley, and beautifully built in a traditional chequerboard of flint and stone in the former farmyard of a 17th-Century manor house, Earls Manor Court reflects its local heritage in the most charming way. The entrance is through a garage forecourt and a fine archway leading into a central garden courtyard. Cottages and apartments surround the delightful garden courtyard, which is mostly laid to lawn with attractive borders, and each has their own terrace or balcony.

Earls Manor Court is only a few minutes drive from a well-stocked local shop with post office services. The village hall offers many activities and there are delightful walks along the river Bourne. Winterbourne Earls is close to Winterbourne Dauntsey and Winterbourne Gunner, collectively known as 'The Winterbournes'. The city of Salisbury with its cathedral, excellent shops and many cultural facilities is only a few miles away, and the beauty of the New Forest National Park is only slightly further afield. If you are keen for a little sea air, both the seaside towns of Poole and Bournemouth are less than an hour's drive.
