Title register restrictions (WM855227):

- The owner cannot sell or transfer the property without the written consent of the mortgage lender. This is a standard legal protection for lenders that ensures the mortgage is paid off during a sale.
- The owner must not build any structures or plant any trees near the electricity lines without first getting approval from the electricity company.
- The owner is not allowed to raise or lower the ground levels in a way that would interfere with the electricity company's rights.
- The owner must follow the specific rules and procedures set out in the lease when selling or transferring the property to a new person.
- The owner has promised to follow the rules (covenants) mentioned in the property records and to protect the previous owner from any future claims regarding these rules.
