Plymouth Road

Horrabridge, Yelverton

A spacious four bedroom semi-detached house offering great potential with spacious living accommodation alongside gardens at the front and rear, off-road parking and great views. The property features three reception rooms plus a sun room at the front and a garden room at the rear.

The parking is at the front, with a tarmacked driveway for three vehicles. Steps lead down to the property, passing the garden which is well stocked with a range of plants and shrubbery. There is a useful workshop/store room. There is gated side access which leads around to the rear. A door leads into the garden room which in turn leads into a spacious kitchen. A door leads into the breakfast room which has a good amount of space for a table and chairs. To the other side there are two interlinking reception rooms, with a dining room opening to a living room which has a door to the rear garden. There is an inner hallway with stairs to the first floor and the sun room at the rear.

On the first floor there are four spacious bedrooms with the back bedrooms enjoying the great views and outlook. There is also the family bathroom.

This spacious family home is in need of updating but offers buyers the chance to put their own stamp on the property. The rear garden is a good size and laid mainly to lawn with a range of plants and shrubbery alongside a greenhouse and garden shed.
