Ref: MK0967. A well-presented first-floor apartment, enjoying light and spacious accommodation together with far-reaching views across Bude Canal, towards the coast. The accommodation briefly comprises a kitchen, lounge/dining room, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Conveniently situated within the heart of the town, the property further benefits from a share of the freehold, independent access and attractive communal gardens. On-street parking is available nearby, with annual permits also available for the neighbouring council car park. The property would make an ideal main residence, second home or holiday let. The property can be purchased fully furnished if required and is being sold with no onward chain.
