Flat 72 St Pauls Crescent, London NW1 9XZ

Forming part of the sought-after Maiden Lane Estate in King's Cross, this beautifully refurbished one-bedroom apartment occupies the first floor of St Pauls Crescent and benefits from two generous private balconies.

Positioned on an east-west axis, the building enjoys exceptional natural light throughout the day, with sunshine moving gracefully from one side of the apartment to the other. The front door opens into a neat entrance hall at the heart of the home, creating a practical and well-balanced layout.

The apartment has been recently refurbished to a high standard, featuring a newly fitted kitchen, modern bathroom, and updated appliances. At one end, the bright living space is defined by expansive sliding glass doors that open directly onto a large private balcony—ideal for entertaining or relaxing outdoors. At the opposite end, the well-proportioned bedroom also enjoys access to its own substantial balcony, offering a peaceful retreat with excellent light.

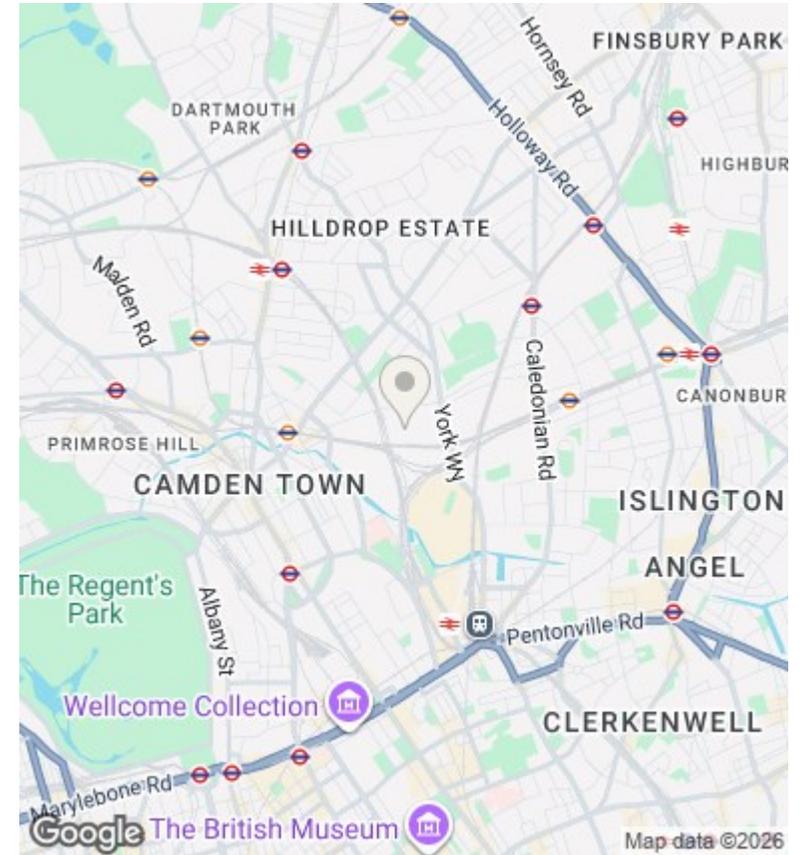

A superb first-floor home combining thoughtful design, outdoor space, and a prime King's Cross location.
