Ground Floor:

Upon entry you are greeted by the hallway, providing access to the staircase and open-plan lounge-diner.

With a large bay window overlooking the front of the property, the lounge space is well proportioned and bathed in natural light, which also illuminates the dining area, courtesy of the dual aspect. Traditional features such as tiled fireplaces and elevated ceilings can be found, all adding the period charm.

The rear of the property holds the extended galley-style kitchen, complete with a choice of low-and-eye level storage. This space holds scope to be comfortably remodelled to maximise its full potential. Access to the cellar and sunroom can also be found.

The adjoining sun room holds access to the private rear garden, perfect for those who are particularly green-fingered.

The cellar is complete with power and supports the gas meter, electric meter and consumer unit.

First Floor:

Upstairs, the landing holds storage as well as access to both double bedrooms and wet room. Bedroom one is a large double bedroom overlooking the front of the property, complete with sash windows.

Bedroom two is a comfortable double room overlooking the rear garden.

The wet room has been converted to support an electric shower, wc, basin and storage.

Outside:

The private rear garden is circa. 140ft, supporting a choice of patio, lawn, shingled seating, storage, mature shrubbery and fruit trees. The scope and potential is superb!

Gated access provides a right-of-way to allow residents access to and from their individual gardens.
