Craven Street, Cowlersley Huddersfield,

Offers over £140,000

This mid-through terraced property with a garage to the rear offers two good-sized bedrooms and a southerly aspect to the front. The light and bright interior has recently had new floor coverings installed and been redecorated. It would make an ideal property for first time buyers or a young family, with the added advantage of vacant possession. The accommodation comprises an entrance lobby, good-sized living room, kitchen with some integrated appliances and a useful cellar. On the first floor are two bedrooms and a recently upgraded, stylish bathroom. The property has a gas-fired central heating system and uPVC double-glazing. Externally, there are garden areas to the front and rear, along with a detached garage.

Details

Entrance Lobby

An external uPVC door gives access to the entrance lobby, which is light and bright with fresh neutral decor and recently fitted carpeting. A staircase rises to the first floor accommodation and a timber and glazed door leads into the living room.

Living Room

Positioned at the front of the property, this is a generously proportioned reception room with a high ceiling and coving. It has a timber fire surround with a marble finish hearth, home to an electric fire. The room is light and bright with neutral decor and a large uPVC window maximising natural light. There is space for a good amount of furniture, a radiator and a timber and glazed door leading to the inner lobby.

Inner Lobby

From the inner lobby, access can be gained down to the cellar.

Kitchen

The kitchen is positioned at the rear of the property. It has wall cupboards and base units with working surfaced, tiled surrounds and a one-and-a-half bowl stainless steel sink. Integrated appliances comprise an electric oven and hob with a canopy style filter hood. There is plumbing for an automatic washer and a tall housing unit that conceals the Vokera boiler for the central heating system, but can also accommodate a fridge freezer. There is a rear uPVC door and window, ceiling downlighting and a radiator.

First Floor Landing

From the entrance lobby, a staircase rises to the first floor landing, which has spindle balustrading.
