

Cranfield Crescent
Cuffley

£685,000
Freehold

A well-presented and greatly improved three-bedroom semi-detached home, ideally situated in this popular residential road just off Bacons Drive and within easy reach of the heart of Cuffley.

The property offers well-balanced and versatile accommodation, including a useful entrance porch, ground floor WC, spacious living accommodation and a rear garden room/conservatory overlooking the garden.

A particular feature is the impressive insulated garden room, complete with bi-folding doors and a separate utility area. This highly versatile space is ideal as a home office, games room, gym or additional occasional accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from its own driveway and a larger-than-average west-facing rear garden, providing an excellent space for entertaining and enjoying the afternoon and evening sun.

Conveniently located for Cuffley village shops, local schools and amenities, the property is also within approximately half a mile of Cuffley mainline railway station. There is also further potential to extend the property, subject to the usual planning permissions.

Viewing is highly recommended.
