Introduction

The Cart House is a beautifully presented semi-detached barn conversion which is situated on the outskirts of Hatfield, Herefordshire. The property boasts light and airy accommodation throughout and comprises: open plan kitchen/dining/living room, sitting room, ground floor shower room with laundry facilities, third reception room, three double bedrooms (master with en-suite), galleried landing and family bathroom. External delights include: large private and secure south west facing back garden positioned to overlook farmland, workshop/shed, carport with EV Charging Point and parking.

Property Description

Entry begins into a light, bright and impressive open plan kitchen/dining/living room. Immediate glimpses are given to the landscaped gardens via double doors that are centrally placed for diners to admire the well maintained garden. To the far end of the room is the kitchen. Beautifully handcrafted floor units sit in a horse shoe shape around a central island with stool seating and integrated bins. Soft muted colour tones under white quartz work tops add a classic and timeless look. There is an electric range and American style fridge/freezer (available by separate negotiation), those essential pan drawers and integrated dishwasher. At the opposite end, and to the other side of a currently placed six seater table and chairs, is room for a sofa and decorative furniture. Oak floor boards enhance this beautiful room with the added bonus of under-stair storage cupboard, spot lights and pendant lighting to the dining area. Cupboard access to the underfloor heating and water tank is here.

Accessed from here is a sitting room, ground floor shower room and third reception room currently set up as a home study. The sitting room is entered through double, glass doors and has a pitched ceiling giving good height to the room. With square proportion this room delights in many ways. Sliding doors frame views of the private garden and fields beyond perfect for quick access in the warmer months. The cooler months are catered for with a sleek wood-burner. Exposed wall to one facade is a really lovely addition.

The ground floor shower room is ideally placed should the new owners want to use the third reception room next door as a bedroom. It is tastefully styled with shower cubicle, wall hung basin and WC and vanity cupboard. There is a purpose built cupboard with housing for a washing machine and shelves above.

Reception room three has front aspect and is currently being used as a study but would lend itself to becoming a hobby room/snug or third bedroom.

On the first floor are three double bedrooms (master with en-suite), galleried landing and family bathroom. The generously sized master has both front and rear aspect with the rear overlooking farmland. There is ample room for an array of bedroom furniture. The room benefits from having its own en-suite facilities with attractively styled shower cubicle, wall hung basin and WC and chrome heated towel rail. Bedroom two is a double with rear aspect. There is room for storage furniture and some exposed timber framing giving the room character. Bedroom three is also a double and of similar size to bedroom two. It has two, square, feature windows to fully enjoy views of the farmland adjoining this rural home. The family bathroom has a bath with shower over, wall hung basin and WC, contemporary styled column radiator and a window for added light and ventilation.
