Guide Price £350,000 - £375,000 Please Quote JK1243 - A characterful and beautifully maintained four bedroom home situated in the highly sought-after location of Higher Furzesham Road, enjoying superb sea views and an attractive outlook across allotments. This charming property, arranged over three floors, blends modern living with period features. The ground floor offers a welcoming entrance hall, a spacious front lounge, separate dining room, and a refitted kitchen with some integrated appliances leading into a bright conservatory—ideal for entertaining or relaxing. A convenient cloakroom completes this level. The first floor hosts two double bedrooms, a further bedroom, and a contemporary shower room, while the top floor provides an additional generous double guest bedroom. Externally, there is a sunny south-facing courtyard garden and driveway parking to the front.
