Location.

Beenham village is a small rural parish midway between Newbury and Reading. The main village lies on the escarpment to the north of the Kennet Valley, spreading for over a mile along the ridge with views over the rolling farmland of the North Wessex Downs, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. In the centre of the village are the Primary School, the Village Hall and adjoining Beenham Club, the recreation ground and the Six Bells pub. A little way down Church Lane, on the border between village and farmland, is St. Mary's Church. There are many footpaths/bridleways offering superb countryside walks and other countryside pursuits.
