Coates and nearby Cirencester

Coates is located approx. Two miles from Cirencester which is an historic Roman town and became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.

Description

Number 4 Victory Row offers a sympathetically refurbished period semi detached family home located in a highly sought after and beautiful village on the edge of Cirencester. Entrance door leads to useful entrance porch with internal door to reception hallway. Hallway gives access to the ground floor accommodation and staircase to the first floor. The present vendors as part of their refurbishment have extended the ground floor of the house to a large degree to create a flexible and stylish living space ideal for the growing family. This living space is largely open plan giving access to a variety of spaces including a dual aspect lounge with fitted wood-burner, cosy sitting room again with independent wood-burner, ideal home study area designed for those who work from home and large open and bright kitchen/diner benefiting from a large glazed opening filled with Bi-folding doors giving direct access onto the enclosed and secluded garden. The kitchen area is fitted with a contemporary range of units and built-in appliance with a large selection of work surfaces and picture window to side. The vendors during the refurbishment took the decision of installing underfloor heating to most of the ground floor living space with an attractive wood floor, an amazing decision particularly pleasing in the winter months creating a superb living environment. The system is thermostatically controlled it is a wet piped installation run by an air source heat pump to the side of the house making it efficient economic to run on a dailey basis. There is also a practical and handy utility room to the front corner of the house ideal for the family. To the first floor there are three family sized bedrooms and a modern white bathroom suite with bath and separate shower cubicle with window to front. From many windows the house benefits from pleasant views to the village and secluded gardens. The property is presented in excellent condition and we would recommend early viewing through Cain and Fuller in Cirencester

Rear garden

The rear garden is an outstanding feature of the property benefiting from a high degree of seclusion and being fully enclosed ideal for the growing family or small animals. There is a large entertaining space directly to the rear of the house with access through Bi-folding doors to the living space. The main garden is laid to lawn with a range of specimen trees and shrubs, the vendors have created a raised bed ideal as a vegetable garden and there is also an addition patio area to the rear corner. Access to the detached single garage and gated side access to the front garden.

Front garden and driveway

Access from the lane that leads through the village to a large gravelled driveway with Cotswold stone wall to front, pathway to house entrance door, side gated access to the side of the house to the detached garage/workshop. The front garden is an excellent size giving the house an attractive frontage and ideal for the family.
