Available at Offers Over £500,000

* OPEN HOUSE - SATURDAY 18TH JULY, 2:30PM - 4PM - PLEASE CALL TO ARRANGE AN APPOINTMENT ****

Occupying a prime position in the very heart of Stratford upon Avon, this substantial double-fronted, three-storey Georgian residence presents a rare opportunity to acquire a property of immense character and potential.

Requiring complete renovation throughout, the house offers an exceptional blank canvas for those looking to restore a period home to its former glory. Alternatively, subject to the necessary planning permissions and consents, the property could lend itself to a variety of commercial or mixed-use opportunities.

Retaining many of the proportions synonymous with the Georgian era, including impressive ceiling heights and generously sized rooms, the accommodation currently comprises two elegant front reception rooms, a separate breakfast room, kitchen, four spacious double bedrooms, a study and two bathrooms, all arranged over three floors.

Externally, the property enjoys a private rear garden with the added benefit of rear pedestrian access via Tyler Street. A range of brick-built outbuildings further enhances the versatility of the outside space, offering potential for storage, workshops or future redevelopment, subject to the relevant consents. A particularly rare advantage for such a central location is the provision of off-road parking for two to three vehicles, a highly sought-after feature in the heart of Stratford-upon-Avon.

Prospective purchasers should note that we have been advised the property has previously been affected by Japanese Knotweed. However, this is currently subject to an insurance-backed treatment plan, providing ongoing management and reassurance.

The property is offered for sale with no onward chain, helping to facilitate a straightforward purchase. For additional peace of mind, the property has also undergone both a structural survey and a damp and timber survey, with copies of both reports available upon request.

Stratford-upon-Avon, nestled in the heart of Warwickshire, is a charming and historic market town best known as the birthplace of William Shakespeare. Set along the picturesque banks of the River Avon, the town beautifully combines rich heritage with a vibrant, contemporary lifestyle. Its streets are lined with well-preserved Tudor buildings, independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants, while cultural highlights such as the renowned Royal Shakespeare Theatre draw visitors from around the world. The town is also particularly well regarded for its strong educational offering, with a range of highly rated primary and secondary schools, including the renowned King Edward VI School and Stratford Girls' Grammar School. In addition the town benefits from excellent transport links, with regular rail services to Birmingham and London, as well as easy access to the M40 motorway, connecting to the wider Midlands and beyond. This makes Stratford upon Avon an ideal location for commuters seeking a more relaxed, picturesque setting without compromising on connectivity.
