Location

Measham is situated 3 miles south west of Ashby De La Zouch on the Leicestershire and Derbyshire borders, with an excellent transport network that links the A42 dual carriageway to the M1 motorway corridor and East Midlands conurbations beyond. Birmingham, Nottingham, Derby and Leicester are all within commuting distance together with Nottingham East Midlands airport and Birmingham International airport. Main line rail links to London are also well catered for. Measham has continued to grow with both established local industries and housing. Leicestershire County Council over recent years have renovated the old station building as part of the Ashby Canal restoration project and it is now used as Measham Museum. The village offers a wealth of local facilities including its own leisure centre with a gymnasium and football grounds, a village doctor's surgery, a library and public houses. There are numerous shops on the High Street including Co-operative and Tesco mini-supermarkets within walking distance. Measham also has two primary schools and the village comes in to catchment area for Ibstock Community College.
