LOCATION

Pen Y Geulan stands at the head of its own private drive located off a no through country lane in the heart of the Rhug Estate. It is within easy reach of the A5 (T) at Rhug giving direct access throughout the region towards Bettws Y Coed in the west and Llangollen in the east.

The house is considered to date from pre 1700 and was originally a large five bedroom farmhouse of character and charm sub-divided by the current owners and let out on a periodic basis. The main part of the house is currently vacant whilst the adjoining half is let. In addition, there are substantial stone fronted buildings which have been converted some years ago to provide Pen Y Geulan Barn and "The Small Barn"

Pen Y Geulan Barn provides a very attractive one bedroom self-contained house with a wealth of character and charm to include a delightful living room with high vaulted ceiling, first floor bedroom, together with modern kitchen/diner and shower room.

The Small Barn is a larger two bedroom house offering quite spacious and adaptable accommodation. Both are currently let on periodic tenancies.

All are set around a large central courtyard each with its own dedicated patios and garden areas. In addition to the extensive parking, there are large lawns.

PEN Y GEULAN FARMHOUSE

THE ACCOMMODATION COMPRISES

PORCH

2.39m x 1.30m (7'10" x 4'3")

Outbuilt and enclosed porch opening to large central dining room.

DINING ROOM

An impressive room with inglenook style fireplace together with enclosed cupboard which originally formed part of the passageway extending to the adjoining property, wood panelled floor, wood stove, panelled radiator. Wide staircase rising off, heavy beamed ceiling.

OUTSIDE

The property is set some distance from the country lane with a long private drive leading in which opens to an extensive gravelled parking area for many vehicles. Adjoining is a modern purpose built detached double garage. Gates lead through to defined courtyard gardens which to the front are for all four properties and through which there is access to an enclosed yard to the gable elevation of Pen Y Geulan Cottage. Beyond is a very substantial workshop/stores. Further lean-to/potting shed to one side. Beyond, access leads through to a wide patio and a very secluded patio and lawned garden which adjoins the rear of the cottage.

DOUBLE GARAGE

5.28m x 4.67m (17'4" x 15'4")

Sub-divided internally with stud wall to provide a shower area and cloak with WC.

DIRECTIONS

From the Agent's Ruthin Office take the A494 Corwen road. Proceed for about nine miles through the village of Gwyddelwern and on meeting the junction with the A5104 Chester road, turn right. At the traffic lights, turn right onto the A5 in the direction of Cerrigydrudion and continue for about one mile. On reaching the Rhug Estate denoted by the farm shop, turn directly opposite signposted Betws Gwerfil Goch. Follow the road for approximately one-third of a mile bearing right up the hill and take the second left onto a minor no-through country lane. Follow this lane for approximately 1.2 miles through rolling countryside and the drive is on the left.

AGENTS NOTES

We understand the first part of the private drive is in the ownership of the Rhug Estate and over which a right of way exists.
