Located within the vibrant town centre, this larger than average two/three bedroom duplex apartment represents a stunning example of thoughtful conversion. Work is still on going and is anticipated to be finished in the coming months. Originally serving as the working men's club, this Grade II listed property has been recently transformed into beautiful modern apartments while preserving its historic character.

The apartment features a magnificent 26' x 19' kitchen/dining/living area that creates an open and spacious feel, complete with high-quality built-in appliances that blend seamlessly with the contemporary design. There is also a home office that could be used as a third bedroom, There are two further comfortable double bedrooms, bedroom one is a vast 20' x 14', while the luxury fitted three-piece bathroom adds an element of sophistication and comfort.

This superb apartment truly showcases how historic architecture can be sensitively adapted for modern living, and an internal viewing is essential to fully appreciate the quality of the conversion and the unique character this remarkable property offers. The property comes with a 150 year lease and has an annual service charge of £2,274.86 per annum
