Description

The Burns Club is a substantial and versatile commercial property prominently positioned on Main Street in the village of Coalsnaughton. Formerly operated as a licensed premises, the property offers a flexible layout suitable for a range of commercial or mixed-use redevelopment opportunities, subject to the necessary consents.

The ground floor is arranged to provide a traditional bar and leisure environment, comprising:

- Entrance Vestibule & Hallway leading into the main trading areas
- Bar Lounge with fixed seating and bar serving area
- Lounge / Pool Room providing additional customer seating and recreational space
- Ancillary Areas including store rooms and cellar/store facilities
- Male & Female Toilets
- Staff/Service Areas
- Fire exits and secondary access points

The layout reflects its previous use as a public house/bar, with clearly defined customer and service zones, offering immediate potential for reinstatement or adaptation to alternative commercial uses such as a café, restaurant, community venue, or retail space.

The upper floor has been stripped back to a shell condition, presenting a blank canvas for redevelopment.

- Previously comprised a large hall with ancillary areas
Proposed plans (as shown on the floorplan) indicate conversion into a two-bedroom residential flat, including:
- Living/kitchen areas
 - Two bedrooms
 - Bathroom facilities

This represents a significant value-add opportunity, allowing purchasers to create a self-contained residential unit or alternative accommodation

EPC Rating: E Band
