RUSSELL STYLE

Bagborough is a highly favoured village situated on the south western slopes of the Quantock Hills, designated a National Landscape. The village is characterised by its attractive period houses and cottages, many built of local red sandstone, and enjoys a delightful rural setting.

The nearby village of Bishops Lydeard offers a wide range of amenities including Church, school, library, health centre, pubs and shops.

Taunton, 8 miles away, is a bustling, forward-looking town with excellent amenities, a good selection of independent and high street shops, distinctive restaurants, cafés, a wealth of history and sporting facilities including the County Cricket Ground.

Taunton benefits from a main line railway station linking to London Paddington in less than 2 hours and excellent communications for the M5 motorway at junction 25, situated on the eastern side of the town.

For rural pursuits, the Brendon and Blackdown Hills also lie within easy reach and further West, Exmoor National Park provides excellent walking, riding and cycling.
