CHESTERTONS

This attractive two-bedroom apartment is situated within Burleigh House, a handsome period mansion block ideally positioned in SW3, close to the River Thames and the excellent amenities found along King's Road and Fulham Road.

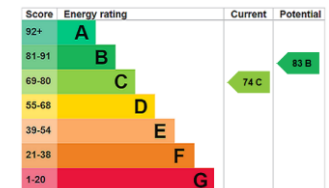

Offering approximately 747 sq ft of well-arranged living space, the property occupies the second floor and benefits from the charm and solid construction typical of early Chelsea architecture.

The layout has been thoughtfully designed, featuring a generous reception room measuring 16'9" x 16'9", providing a central living area with ample space for both dining and relaxation. A separate, well-proportioned kitchen sits just off the reception room. The two double bedrooms are arranged at opposite ends of the apartment, creating privacy and flexibility for guests, home working, or sharers. A family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Residents of Burleigh House enjoy secure entry, well-kept communal areas, and the appeal of a highly sought after Chelsea address. The nearby riverside provides attractive walking routes and green spaces, while the surrounding neighbourhood offers an excellent selection of cafés, restaurants, boutiques, galleries, and transport links.
