A CHARMING TWO BEDROOM SEMI-DETACHED HOME, BEAUTIFULLY IMPROVED AND IDEALLY LOCATED IN THE SOUGHT-AFTER VILLAGE OF DRAYCOTT

Robert Ellis are delighted to bring to the market this lovely traditional two bedroom semi-detached home, situated on Walter Street in the ever-popular village of Draycott. Offering a wonderful blend of traditional charm and modern improvements, the property has benefited from a number of recent upgrades, including a new roof and a recently fitted four-piece bathroom. Retaining some attractive period features, the home also benefits from gas central heating, double glazing and plenty of useful storage throughout. An ideal purchase for first-time buyers, couples or those looking to downsize.

The accommodation begins with a light and airy entrance hall, providing access to the lounge, dining room and staircase rising to the first floor. The dining room benefits from a useful cloakroom cupboard and additional built-in storage, with a door leading through to the kitchen, which incorporates a handy utility area and downstairs WC. To the first floor, the landing gives access to two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a recently fitted four-piece family bathroom, finished in a modern style with attractive period-inspired touches. Outside, the property enjoys an enclosed rear garden, comprising a patio area and lawn, providing a pleasant space for relaxing and entertaining.

Walter Street is ideally positioned within the sought-after Derbyshire village of Draycott, a popular village offering a welcoming community atmosphere and a range of local amenities. The property is conveniently located close to a nearby park, local school and village shops, making it particularly well placed for everyday needs. Combining a traditional village setting with convenient access to local facilities, this is a lovely home in a highly desirable location.
