LONG LEASE OF 986 YEARS – LEASEHOLD

Guide Price £450,000 - £500,000

Set on this quiet residential road is this period conversion split over two levels and situated a short walk from Woolwich Arsenal and town centre. Spanning approximately 1,159 sqft this property offers three double bedrooms, private garden, garage and off street parking for multiple vehicles. Master bedroom (ground floor)– has built in wardrobes, walk in wardrobe and small baby room with under bed storage. This room features a glass picture door which opens up onto the lovely hardwood decked area and lucious green landscaped garden. Bedroom 2 – Is a lovely bright double bedroom with window overlooking onto the secluded garden. This room features a reclaimed fire surround and large feature bronze radiator. Bedroom 3 (upstairs)– Is another double with bespoke shower, handmade reclaimed scaffold board vanity unit and stone sink.

Family bathroom was newly refurbished this year with bespoke made to measure sink and storage vanity unit. Simple and contemporary design.

Separate WC (down stairs) features a bespoke hand made cupboard and detailing from reclaimed floorboards and exposed copper pipe work and brass fittings, creating a truly unique little space. The down stairs to the property benefits from fully insulated floors throughout and Victorian floorboards. Upstairs also has solid wood floorboards. A separate functional kitchen features a window flooding it with natural light, a lounge with double height ceilings, fire place and bay window looks onto trees and the front garden. A versatile home office/workshop with natural light, a cellar storage as big as the lounge above !

The garden has been landscaped recently and features different areas. As you come out of the master bedroom you walk onto hardwood (balau) decking surrounded by bamboo, then up the steps into the main part of the garden which has a built in fire pit and reclaimed sleepers seating area big enough to seat 10-12 people around the fire. Small grassed area and more additional seating all secluded and not overlooked which is rare find for a London property.

The property benefits from its own garage with power and lighting and also communal land to the side and a communal front garden which offers off street parking. On street parking is also free.

The property retains many original period features throughout and the vendor has made many upgrades to the property to make it a very warm family home.

Here is what the vendor has to say: "I love everything about the property, rooms, quiet secluded garden, loads of storage, private entrance, drive and garage. I am only selling to be near my daughters school in Forest hill. I wish we could take this house with us. We love this home.

I have carried out a full renovation including kitchen, bathroom , shower room , Valliant boiler, radiators, flooring, decorating throughout with Farrow & Ball paint, new windows, doors, new porch with additional large storage accessed from the outside, new wc.

Title register restrictions (TGL594145):

The property is subject to restrictive covenants (legal rules that limit how the land can be used) which are detailed in a 1979 Transfer document. These are common and are designed to ensure the property and surrounding area are managed appropriately.

There are standard restrictions which state that the property cannot be sold or transferred without the consent of the mortgage lenders (Together Personal Finance Limited and West One Secured Loans Limited). This is a routine administrative requirement that ensures the mortgages are paid off as part of the sale process.
