Wardle Drive is a beautiful detached family home which is situated in a sought-after residential development of Dane View. The home offers modern family living in a peaceful setting, with open Cheshire farmland nearby and excellent access to everyday amenities, schools and commuting links. Meaning it is perfectly suited to growing families and those looking for a home ready to move into, the property enjoys a quiet position whilst remaining conveniently located for Northwich town centre and the surrounding Cheshire countryside.

Upon entering, a welcoming entrance hallway leads to a convenient downstairs cloakroom/WC and a spacious, light-filled through lounge, with doors opening directly onto the enclosed rear garden. The modern open-plan kitchen/diner provides a fantastic space for family dining and entertaining, again benefiting from direct garden access, making it ideal for indoor-outdoor living. To the first floor, a generous landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two excellent doubles. The impressive principal bedroom enjoys its own stylish en-suite shower room, whilst a contemporary family bathroom serves the
