

Glasshouse Fields, E1W

£410,000

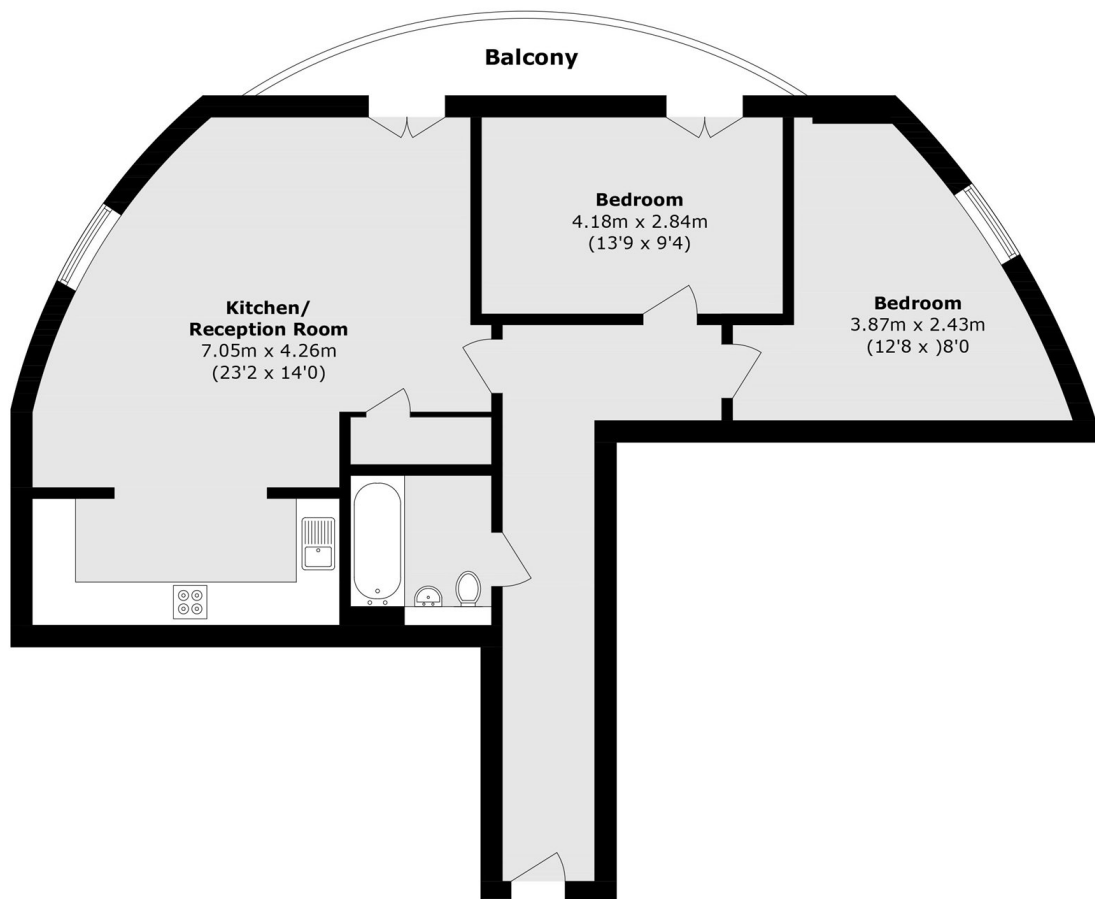

Situated within the sought-after Glass House Fields development, this well-presented two bedroom apartment benefits from a south east aspect, allowing natural light throughout the day. Located close to the basin and the amenities of Wapping, the property offers a combination of waterside living and convenient city access. The apartment features a generous entrance hallway, creating a practical separation between the living and sleeping areas. The open plan kitchen and reception room provides a versatile space for entertaining and everyday living.

Residents benefit from excellent transport links, with Wapping Overground station, Shadwell station and Tower Hill station all within easy reach, providing convenient connections to the City, Canary Wharf and across London.
