The ground floor offers two reception rooms plus a breakfast kitchen and a downstairs cloakroom, while the first floor features four well-proportioned bedrooms, three of which are double, and a modern house bathroom. Updated over time and featuring a boiler that is less than a year old, the property also includes off-street parking with an electric car charger, a garage, and an easy-to-maintain garden. Further the current owner has full planning approval for a single storey extension to the rear.

LOCATION

The property occupies a superb position at the head of the cul-de-sac on Thornwick Avenue, lying just to the south of Kingston Road. Conveniently placed for the excellent range of amenities found at the Kingston Road and Gorton Road junction, the house also backs onto the old railway embankment, with the King George V playing fields just beyond. This choice location is not only ideal for accessing the highly regarded Wolfreton School, but also provides easy access to the wider amenities across the popular Willerby, Anlaby, and Kirk Ella areas.
