SITUATION

The property occupies an enviable semi rural location with no immediate neighbours, set within the boundaries of the Dartmoor National Park and parish of South Tawton, but close to the village of South Zeal. The village offers two well patronised public houses and an excellent primary school. There are also regular bus services to and from Exeter and access can be gained to the A30 dual carriageway at nearby Whiddon Down. The former market town of Okehampton is some 5 miles distant and offers an excellent range of amenities including 3 supermarkets, nationally and locally owned shops, hospital, and leisure centre situated in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. There is schooling for all ages to and various sports and leisure facilities, including thriving rugby and football clubs as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The Dartmoor National Park which is easily accessible from South Zeal by footpaths and bridleways offers hundreds of square miles of unspoilt scenery with many opportunities for riding and walking.

DESCRIPTION

A charming 3 bedroom detached cottage occupying this enviable private position, with no immediate neighbours, set close to the villages of South Zeal and South Tawton. The property is set in gardens and grounds of approximately 6 acres and will particularly appeal to the equestrian buyer, having a stable block and menage together with excellent outriding on nearby lanes, bridlepaths and within easy access to Dartmoor. The property itself offers comfortable accommodation and in brief offers, to the ground floor, a dining/sitting room, a kitchen/breakfast room with delightful views over the neighbouring fields to Dartmoor, a WC/utility room and conservatory. On the first floor are 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property is offered with no ongoing chain and is in need of some updating and improvement, but offers significant potential for potential buyers.
