An excellent opportunity to acquire a substantial period property arranged over three floors, which, until recently, provided letting rooms for the George and Dragon Hotel. Prior to this use, it formed part of the Rectory.

The property offers the purchaser flexibility to consider a change of use and even reconfigure it back into a large residential family home, or potentially into holiday apartments or offices, subject to the appropriate consents.

Situated close to the town centre, within the town's Conservation Area, the property benefits from a large garden with access through to the George and Dragon Hotel. There is ample space to create a parking area at the rear of the garden.

Accommodation briefly comprises:

Ground Floor: Front entrance hall, two bedrooms with en-suites, access to balcony.

First Floor: Three bedrooms, all with en-suites. Covered balcony accessed by a bedroom (16).

Second Floor: Landing, three bedrooms, all with en-suites.

Well-stocked enclosed rear garden, with planted beds and a part-enclosed patio area.

Kirkbymoorside is a popular and thriving market town offering a wide range of local amenities, including independent shops, cafés, public houses, a community primary school, sports facilities, padel courts, and regular bus services. The town sits on the edge of the North York Moors National Park, providing easy access to outstanding countryside, as well as walking and cycling routes, while remaining convenient for Helmsley, Pickering, York, and the East Coast.
